Freedom Debt Relief Reviews:

Freedom Debt Relief is a GREAT option for people really struggling with their debts. It is a debt resolution strategy called negotiated debt settlement that can potentially cut debts with a lower monthly cost and get you debt free fast.

I think Freedom Debt Relief is the best company in the industry, they are on the Board of the industry association, are members of the BBB, are graduates of Stanford Business School and manage over $1.5 billion in debts for 50,000 clients.

"I cannot believe how nice the people at your company are. It's been almost a year now and it brings me to tears...of course I'm always emotional these days. Thank you, truly...from the bottom of my heart. You all are very special to me and I will take with me the comfort in knowing that you all were there to help me through this terrible crisis."

"All of you have been so helpful to us.. In your caring concern to get us out of debt! No one was ever rude to us; or made us feel we were people not to be respected due to our foolishness getting ourselves into deep, deep debt. It's hard to find a way to thank each one of you today... We truly can't thank you enough for all you did for us from settling our nerves to telling me it is okay to cry... whatever you did no matter how great or how small, know you are appreciated."
